Introduction:

I have re-written this book for the purpose of presenting the marketing tasks from the perspective of a Model.

There will not be sections such as “Ways to view OFM as an agency owner”, “Networking”, et cetera.

ONLYFANS

- Make sure you have a memorable username.
- In your bio, put the things that subscribers will get if they sign up, like chatting with you, daily messages, weekly uploads to your feed, and the types of content you put out. Be as descriptive as possible without being confusing.
- e.g.
- "@online and available to dm all day@ @solo, BG, GG, JOI, Toys, Stripteases, Dirty Talk, Fetishes + Customs and I show my face here@ daily uncensored uploads@ I love to do video dick ratings!@ if you have rebill on you can message me for a premium video at the start of each month@"
- (Assume each "@" is a cute emoji like a heart or something like that.)
- You can even put your height, weight and what you're into, etc.)
- Use polls in your feed to understand your customers better, what they like to see, content ideas, etc.
- Set a custom welcome message, this can be 1 min of the girl dancing, saying welcome to my page or some shit like that.
- e.g.
- "Hi! Thank you so much for subscribing. If you want to talk to me, please do. If you want anything special from me, please let me know. If you want to send me pictures, go ahead and do that...", and let them know how much it costs for you to rate their photos or whatever kinds of messages you tend to get. Personalize that message to your liking."
- Create a tip menu. Literally just a restaurant menu but for models.
- Always set your profile to be active when online. Get your subs to get in the habit of checking their accounts everyday and messaging you.
- If you want to keep your OF account, do not talk about in person work, give people another way to contact you, get payment or deliver anything offsite.

- Always use two step authentication on OF
- To incentivize auto-renew, around the end of the month, you send out an “exclusive” video that fans can buy for a certain amount of money (10mins), but they can get it for free if they turn auto-renew on.
- Chatting tip: mention that you’ve met your ex on OF cuz he/she spent a lot of money. If they ask why you broke up, just state that he/she didn't have <Personality characteristic/value that the sub you’re talking to has>.
- For posting - when you start out - 5 posts per day until you reach 30-50, then you can move to 1 post every 2 days. 2 messages per day and 1 story per day. You can schedule these to save time.
- Remember to create a list of priority customers and explore with custom videos/products.
- Create an audio list for Dick reviews: Small, medium & large.
- At a high level when you have like a few million followers, you can price your OF subscription fee as 20 or 25 dollars, and now you’d know that all of them who pay up are high quality fans and much easier to upsell.
- When chatting, say something that proves the convo to be in real time, for e.g. “let me close my curtains first so my neighbors won’t see me”
- SEND PPVs IN REAL TIME: If the video is of you stripping in 1 min, it should take you a bit more than one minute to send it.

PPV CAPTION EXAMPLES:

- Literally never done this before
- Picked a sub at random. This is for your eyes only
- Was so scared to upload this...
- This might get me banned...
- I was told not to share this... but fuck it, here
- Drunk sex during a rainstorm hits different...
- The image that made 57 men immediately cum
- You won't believe how wet this shirt is

CONTENT THAT YOU MUST HAVE READY:

- At least 10+ flirty photos/selfies of yourself in bed (non-nude but suggestive, try different angles and focuses: chest, crotch, ass, full body, tongue out face, etc)
- At least 10+ nude photos/selfies of yourself (try different angles and focuses like mentioned before)
- Dick rate audios
(1 for small, 1 for average, 1 for large.
For small, say something like "that's actually my favorite size! All the larger ones hurt so much..."
For average, say something generic like "oh my god that is so thick and sexy... It turns me on so much, I want to put that throbbing dick in my mouth right now".
For large, say something like "holy shit! That's massive! I can imagine that big shaft stretching my tight pussy/asshole apart, conquering me like your bitch. Oh my god im so horny noww...")
- At least 5-10 tease videos (non-nude, you can touch yourself through clothing but nothing too stimulating. Tease your tits, or ass, or dick by uncovering a bit of your clothing.)
- At least 5-10 tease videos (can be nude, e.g. fondling, light fingering, tongue play, dirty talk, light self pleasuring through clothing, etc)
- At least 5-10 self pleasuring videos (preferably filmed in different locations/different times)

If you are currently doing the chatting yourself, this will mean that they won't have to do erotic things whilst they chat and instead focus on flirting with the guy. This is more important when you have chatters because your vault content folder will be their arsenal of weapons.

Share for shares and collabs:

www.thecollabclub.co

You can find legitimate creators on this website who will do shout for shouts, and on their profile you can see the percentage earner they are, and what percentage they accept for your model. There are free and paid ones, but obviously you can climb the ranks really quickly with the paid ones. There is even a community, which you can leverage after getting your first model because you now have a site full of needy OF creators.

OF LISTS:

Create a "VIP" club. Reach out to fans and tell them that you offer limited behind the scenes, extended videos, better chatting, etc. Ask them for a tip like 50 dollars. What you need to do is to create a new list called "VIP club", and whenever you chat with someone who paid, you click on that link and send your "special content". Of course, you have to shoot separate content for the VIP fans. It doesn't have to be something crazy, it just has to be good quality and different.

OF SEO:

How to rank high in Google for your OF link:

How Google chooses the top links is by gauging trust. How they gauge trust is by seeing how many different links are linked to the site, and basically how many mentions it gets. So Onlyfans is a high trust website because millions of people are mentioning it online, and therefore when you sign up for an OF creator account you immediately get some SEO benefits because you are piggybacking off of Onlyfans' trust.

The benefit of this high trust score is that if you optimize your page correctly, you will then be able to rank high for specific keywords that have high traffic for free on Google.

For example, the search term "egirl" has 10-100k clicks pm, and if you rank the highest in this search term, imagine the number of conversions you can get. What you need to do is to start incorporating keywords throughout your OF. This is a list of the best places to incorporate keywords for search traffic from Google.

- Display name
- Username
- Bio
- Posts

Make sure keywords are made into readable sentences because Google will check that you're not just spamming. Input them into your content too. A tip. Niche down on your keywords too. For example, there will be tons of competition on the keyword "milf", but less competition on the keyword "milf feet".

When you pick a niche, go to Google and find the analytics of the highest-ranking search terms related to the niche and then create her bio and related things.

CHATTING:

This is the time to get a STRONG GRIP on your subscriber. As a woman, you should know of ALL the ways you can flirt and seduce a guy to make him fall in love - and subsequently throw his wallet to you.

The Major Key to chatting is to simply build up a relationship/connection before you get sexual (in most cases). Love sells better long term compared to Lust. You can even dedicate 1 or 2 days just building a "connection" with a sub EVEN BEFORE you say or send ANYTHING sexual.

To prevent this from getting even more complicated, I've decided to remove the example chatting scripts. Inquire with a trusted Agency/Manager or Model regarding the complexities of Chatting.

TIKTOK

SETUP/SCHEDULE

- Post 3-4 times a day, first 30 days post 5 times a day 10 max.
- ANY publicity is good publicity. Use tools such as stitches, replies, the two panel thingy, and use the controversy method to get mass exposure and mass hate. Tate method basically.
- Marketing at scale (As Ethan Bayliss calls it). Set up multiple TikTok accounts. Base all in different parts of the world. Use sim cards for this. For each of these accounts, we post BREAKTHROUGH content. That's content specifically designed to feed the algorithm. And try to post different content on the several profiles. This works for all social media platforms.
- Replicate viral content on all your TikTok accounts for insane amounts – change a few variables. E.g. outfit, background, etc. Like all those pretty boys on tiktok, same sound, different environment for months and months. Just do that for the ones that perform the best.
- Hit the US market. They have the highest buying power.
- How to warm up: Put 10-15 videos (random ones of 10 secs each) in draft, don't upload, put a pfp and no bio. Next day you can post 2 videos (viral type videos). Check the next day if there are views. Foreplay.
- Tiktok live. If you can, go live on up to 5 phones. Minimum 3 times a week. When you stream, you will be using whatever location was in the SIM card that you used for your original phone. Don't interact with fans too much, show off a bit, from time to time you can say "thanks NAME for subbing to my OF", etc. You can even wear an OF shirt. (logo only)

- Gather a list of big tiktokers and OF creators, find their most viewed content and just remake them.
- Best times to post: 10.30-12.30pm, 3.30-5.30pm, 7.30-10.30pm.
- Hashtag strategy: Either 4 niche specific per video, 4 broad, 3 specific 1 broad, or 3 broad 1 specific.
 Broad hashtags are like #FYP, #ForYou, #Viral, and #foryoupage. Post specific hashtags are like #beauty, #comedy, #pov, #spicy, #relatable, #Sexy, #link, #accountant, #model, #modeling, #modelstatus, etc.
- Always set up that IG button under the profile, and only link IG below that. You don't want to have a linktree or anything similar because those are instant rejections if you try to appeal after a ban. Remember, Tiktok goes to IG, then to OF.
- If you intend to directly convert TikTok viewers to linktree then OF, switch to a business account and add your link, Make sure the account has 1k plus followers or you won't be able to add a link without adding business info.
- Use #fakebody on every post, reduces chance of ban or strike.
- ALWAYS make sure HD posting is turned on.

LIVE STRATEGIES:

- Put yogurt on your face, wipe a little off after a while and keep adding, you could say something like "if we reach <goal number> likes I'll put some more."
- You can also do some other suggestive stuff like gurgling water while looking up and holding a sign that says "Only talking when someone with an 8 inch joins". Be creative. Eat a banana, put a pen in between your tits, do moaning asmr, etc.
- You can talk about anything, but you want to focus on male topics like sports and random rapport
- "Come over to my Instagram, I've got a big surprise over there so check it out because its not going to be there for very long"
- You can do things like sing, even if you can't, as long as you're cute you can get away with it
- For the caption, "mentioned you in live" or something similar.
- Make sure to post the usual content before starting the live so that it really hits the FYP algo.
- For new/small accounts, you can hold a whiteboard/paper and write down names of new followers.

HOW NOT TO GET BANNED:

Tiktok automatically puts creators into categories of “content types”. These are: adult, yoga, fitness, cosplay, asmr, comedy, transitions, relationship advice, gaming, meditation, etc.

When you keep posting content that gets labeled as “adult” by the tiktok algo, you are more likely to get banned. So what you need to do is to post as many videos in other categories as possible. For example, you can do yoga but make it extremely sexual. E.g. piasweet_ for yoga, _blahfit for fitness, dessyyc for cosplay, etc.

You can post OF trends, but make sure to overlap with some of these non-adult niches.

Low hanging fruit: Re-upload your videos from Tiktok to clapper, it's pretty low hanging fruit because you can directly plug your OF in your bio, and you can go live immediately without needing 100 followers. You can even join clapper groups with other models in your similar niche and create videos and lives together.

How to go viral:

1. Capture attention

- Open with something that doesn't make sense
- Open with something that is out of the ordinary
- Open with controversy
- Open with something highly relatable

2. Capture curiosity

- Partially cover your face or body
- Implied glow up transition e.g. baggy clothing
- Text on screen/must watch to find out format
- Use props

3. Viral sounds

- Actively being used sounds
- Majority vids within that sounds are doing the same trends

4. Luck

- Timing
- Audience pockets
- Algo changes

(This emphasizes the importance of niching down. Luck is just probability, and you need to position yourself in the market well enough to fully exploit the probability of your success.)

When searching for videos to copy, use these points to do a screening to see if it's viral material.

INSTAGRAM? (There's not much to share)

As you can probably tell, Instagram is so supremely boring and uninspiring to me that I have not even bothered to come up with a martial art analogy for this one.

What do I even have to say about Instagram? It's literally the simplest platform, and there's almost NO strategy when you disregard the MOTHER-SLAVE method.

SETUP:

- For warmup, start with 2 posts a day with 24 in total. Start with 10 follows a day then increase by 10 a day, maximum 180. Follow and unfollow on alternate days, and upload story archives.
- "The link you want is in here" in bio, which links to the your website which links to OF.
- Post like a thirst trapper, but don't seem like a sex worker. For content, you can post clean lifestyle photos, show off her assets but don't make it too sexual. Shy girls get more money.
- Always post stories
- One post a day
- You should have an influencer – styled bio, short and snappy, not too promotional.
- How to avoid bans – use a proxy or vpn the moment you receive an action block, drop actions to 0. Don't perform activities too quickly and space out unfollows. You can block instead.

- Use polls in stories to get market research.
- Use the remora method (as coined by TMDigital). Go to other OF models' posts, DM the guys in her DMs with a short message like "hey".
- For social proof, her Instagram should have 2k+ followers, 50+ posts, actively posting stories daily, and have a story archive.
- For slave accounts, follow all the men who follow the mother account. To warm up slave accounts, 10 actions per day, 1 week no links in bio. You will see clicks in 2 weeks.
- For proxies, you can use VPN, pocketstream, potato, etc.
- Slave accounts can funnel directly to OF for faster sales, but funneling to the mother account is a better long term play.
- Repost TikToks to reels every day.

REDDIT

- Use Imgur to upload your photos and get your links. Hold on to the picture in the imgur album and press copy post link, not copy link, so it embeds right. Make sure the link ends in .jpg. For videos copy the links but change the ending with .gifv instead of .mp4.
- Redgifs for gifs
- Video/gif posts tend to perform better than photos. You should prioritize these, and they can be easily made by chopping up some of your content.
- Once you gain 1k karma at least, you can start posting to much better subreddits, depending on your niche.
- Another great way to find quality subreddits is to find OF models on the platform and just see where they post on. You can even see what they're best post is and just copy. There are so many free references and market research out there. On the subreddits r/creatorsadvice and r/onlyfanscreatorsadvice, you can find, obviously, advice.
- You can also target SFW subreddits like r/selfies, make people think that you're a "good girl" and funnel them to your OF and let them see your "dirty side". Fancharm, SocialRise, etc are good for automation.
- DO NOT repost the same content to every subreddit like a lazy loser. Tailor your content to the niche of each different subreddit.
- WATERMARK YOUR CONTENT

HOW TO POST:

- Post different pictures. Using one and flooding it to all subreddits on the same day KILLS your engagement. It distances followers on Reddit. Make your profile diverse and interesting. Also, Reddit is cracking down on spammers. You may get away with it for some time, or get banned in the first week. This is more feasible once you have lots of karma, but when you're just starting, you'll get into trouble.
- Reusing pictures and sharing one to multiple subreddits is fine. Just spread it out over a few days. Wait some time before submitting the same picture.
- Never advertise in the title or comments, unless the subreddit explicitly allows it. Rather attract users to your profile as described in the beginning.
- Avoid posting in promotional subreddits. Focus on building a following through normal NSFW subreddits.
- Read the rules before you post. Only submit relevant content to relevant subreddits. Also, check if there are any pinned posts with rules.
- Post special images to your profile only for your followers. Mention that it's exclusive for them in the title.
- Post at the best time for each subreddit.
- Create eye-catching titles and try not to repeat them. Ask questions to engage Redditors and gain traction. Ask something cute and witty.

MODEL SUBREDDIT:

This is where you build a loyal following, post OF/Fansly leaks/teasers, and repurpose content from other platforms.

Most OF models pin a post on their account as well as the subreddit that says 50% off on OF or something promotional that funnels followers to their OF.

Of course people need an incentive to join your own subreddit. Post exclusive content and make sure that your fans are aware of that.

The best time to post on Reddit is on Mondays between 6 AM and 8 AM and at the other end of the week on Saturdays and Sundays between 7-9 AM and 8 AM -12 PM, respectively.

You can make the most out of your Reddit efforts if you are posting in the early mornings and post them on Mondays, Saturdays, and Sundays.

Post 2-5 times a day, but make your posts on your personal subreddit less frequent because they are higher quality, like once every 2 or 3 days.

EXACT STRATEGY/TIMELINE

(Got this from a Shane Francis video transcript, which is why the formatting might sound odd. It's because it's in spoken word.)

Of course, I'm not going to plagiarize intellectual property, so make sure to subscribe to him at www.youtube.com/@shanecarrollfrancis

"Doing this correctly, you should expect about 200 to 300 subscribers per day on a free page and about five to ten percent of that on a paid page.

The majority; about 90% of the subreddits that you're gonna ever need to post in requires a 30-day aged account.

Number two:

Mysubs.cc: This is just a very simple tool or a website - the reason why it is so good is because

Let's say I have feet put in here now because it's pretty safe for work but let's say you have a creator that has big boobs or she's brunette or she's into BDSM. You can specify and you can Niche down very specifically what your creator is good at, so if I were to type in the corner here first type in "BDSM" I would get a list of all the BDSM-relevant subreddits.

So this is fantastic and now you can just click on it and you get redirected to the subreddit on Reddit.

Part two: This is mass account creation.

With the strategy that I'm about to give you, it is going to be very important that you have plenty of accounts waiting in reserve.

Because with the strategy that I use, you go through accounts very quickly so it's very important to have a buildup of accounts that you have quick access to.

The best way to do this is to create in Google accounts through SMSman.

So when you go on to Google, create a Google account and this is simply how we do it so you type in some randomized name then the username you want it to be unique but systemized, for example "johndoereddit001". You're going to have hundreds of these accounts so give the names a clear structure that's going to make it easy for you or your VA to keep track and sign in."

And that's just a small portion of the video. Trust me, I would only include large chunks of other people's material in my own book if I truly believed it was valuable. So make sure to watch the full video at www.youtube.com/watch?v=e101kGO1RpE

(I am in no way affiliated or partnered with him, this is not a promotional or paid plug.)

TWITTER

SETUP/SCHEDULE

- Make a compelling profile. Know who you are targeting. Have a relatable banner, defining bio and clear CTA. (niche specific)
- Label your profile as NSFW
- "Mark media you tweet containing material that might be sensitive" (privacy and settings, accounts, your tweets)
- Use comments to your advantage. Comment 30+ times a day, comment on accounts with more than 10k+ followers, add value and remember to comment on people in your niche.
- The art of tweeting for growth. Try to create 3 pieces of high quality content every day and they should be picture/video content. E.g. a video of you naked in a car. It should be wild and interesting. And add a caption such as "what would you do if you found me like this"
- Saying things like 'Retweet if you'd fuck me' will increase engagement. It is also a good idea to watermark the posts with your OF name so if they get shared on other platforms people will still know where to sub to your models OF.
- Retweet 5x a day.
- Download superpower for twitter
- Do follow and unfollow of targets in the adult niche

- 5 sentence tweets a day, make sure your sexuality is attached to 80% of it. E.g. "I would love to get stuffed like a turkey rn", "the feminine urge to show off my uterus for money on OF" etc.
- Use hashtags like: #onlyfansgirl #onlyfangirl #onlyfans #model #onlyfanz #onlyfansbabe #lingerie #onlyfangirls #sexy #onlyfanscreator #sellingcontent #beautiful #onlyfansspotlight #egirl #BBW #Porn #Hardcoreporn
- Experiment with hashtags revolving around current events or trends also.
- Direct OF link in bio
- Disable precise location to target entire world demographic (settings and privacy, privacy and safety, precise location)

STRATEGY

- Follow similar creators in your niche with 100–200k followers. Don't go higher because then there's too much competition from other models trying the same strategy as you.
- Profile setup: first pinned post is the best photo of your model, next thread is your Onlyfans link. Use an intriguing caption that will get engagement.
- Go to sex worker/onlyfans threads and post once a day.
- 10-15 comments a day as soon as notifs hit your phone (as close to America evening time as possible).
- Create threads where you copy paste interesting standout stories from sexual encounter stories subreddits.
- After 5k followers, you can charge 5–10 dollars for 7 posts per week.
- Have a custom flier made on Canva for promotions and provide testimonials.
- Zlappo to automate.
- With Zlappo, you can manage multiple accounts that target different audiences.
- Follow trends, movies, world topics, music, etc. Create content around such trends like cosplaying.
- Target keywords. For example, "me or the ps5".
(That works because ps5 will always be trending amongst the gaming community, a community that is filled with simps and incels, customers for you. You can do the same with industries like gaming, streaming, sports, etc. You can do soccer jersey outfits, and you can even do controversial soccer takes to get interactions. For example: “Didn’t get to go to the man united game today, click here to find out what I did instead”. Remember the call to action.)

- In every text tweet you post, you should be targeting one of these industries.
- Focus on 3 communities – your own niche, the liberal agenda (twitch streamers like destiny), and the manosphere.
- Follow between 20-50 people in your niche. They should have 200-500k followers.
- Do not piss the liberal agenda people off. You want their support because these people are the largest consumers of your content. Find the majority of twitch streamers.
- Try to piss the manosphere off as much as possible. Find trending threads, especially if there’s one about onlyfans and harms of it blah blah blah.

EXPLICIT OR NAH?

You will need to decide on what angle you want to have for your page. A majority of twitter users have sensitive content turned off – most users don't even know that porn exists on the platform. However, if you do tap into the audience who allow their accounts to see porn, the results can be evergreen.

1. Non-explicit page: much harder to build momentum, these pages are rare at being constantly viral, but if you manage to with the right content chain, it will grow crazy quick and get suggested by twitter and grow on autopilot even without posts for a long time.
2. Explicit page: easier to build momentum, but your page is pushed mostly to an audience that digests porn, so it takes a lot more to stand out.

Trends:

Jump on all trends and pre-plan them. Ask yourself and the net, what are some big events/movies/albums etc coming out that will be trending on twitter?

Use these to your advantage and have content ready. Don't focus on seasonal stuff (Halloween, Christmas, etc.) because everybody does that. Think outside the box. What upcoming event is huge but normie that you can remake into something raunchy? The least expected ones will always do the best.

Comment baiting:

Find big creators (but not too big, stick between 50-200k) within your niche. Set up a dummy account which has all of them to See First.

Create a content bank of your videos/photos for various things. As soon as you're notified this creator has posted, open it, look at the post and find media from your content bank to quickly post in under a minute under their post.

Make your caption related to theirs, perhaps as a response – it will do better. Like the post on all accounts you have, retweet it to your page(s).

If you manage to get a comment to over 100 likes, reply to it with another post of yours, many of those who engaged with it are likely to be notified.

The key is to always aim for top comment.

TWITTER DIRECT MESSAGING:

Followers on Twitter don't get a notification when you tweet, but by default they do get a notification from messages.

- Tap the envelope icon on your profile and you will be directed to your messages.
- To create a new message, tap on the message icon.
- Enter the name/names or username/usernames of the people you wish to send a DM to.
- You can include up to 50 people in a group message.
- Write your message.
- If you wish to attach a video, picture, or GIF, to the message, tap the photo icon.
- For animated GIF, tap the GIF icon and search for it.
- In the end, tap the send icon from your Android device.
- In the case of an iOS device, tap the paper airplane icon.
- In case you are sending a Twitter DM via the web, then click Send button or press the enter key.

Obviously this is time consuming so there are a lot of options when it comes to bots to do this messaging outreach for your Twitter account.

SFS

One of the best ways to grow the Twitter account is SFS with other OF models, preferably models that fit into a similar niche as yours in order to maximize the relevance to the target audience.

To look for these models and groups head on over to the Twitter search. You'll want to search for terms like "sw retweet group" and "sw sfs" and "swrt." The "sw" stands for "sex worker." Also, try "onlyfans sfs" and variations of that search term. Also, try "s4s" in addition to "sfs."

After you perform a search, click or tap the "Latest" tab and you'll see a bunch of active models who are open and eager to trade shouts with you, usually on both OnlyFans and Twitter.

If you're just beginning and have few followers/fans, you may not be able to get models with huge followings to trade with you, whereas if your model already has an active Twitter that you are taking over, then more will be willing to operate s4s with you.

Either way this is a very powerful way of consistently putting your model in front of large audiences which will only lead to increased OF growth.

Don't restrict your outreach to models actively looking for SFS, some may not yet be aware of how powerful it can be so building a relationship with them is key.

If you actually think about it, the level of success you will have from an s4s from a model who has never really done them before will be far higher than a model who is spamming s4s constantly- little golden tip for you.

Paid SFS- Through this method you will encounter offers of paid shoutouts.

If you are just starting out it is better to push organic methods and build relationships with other models.

However, if you are inclined to go for a paid SFS, then prior to doing so ask to see some previous results and the number of fans/social reach that model has just to ensure it will be an effective way to spend money.

TIMELINE:

1000+ followers:

- Automate the process
- Schedule content daily
- Spend 1-2 hours per week setting everything up and let it work for you now that you have momentum

5000+ followers:

- Continue to add more threads throughout the day as you grow
- Charge other creators for threads on your profile $5-$10 per 7 posts 1 daily
- Get the content and schedule it in one sitting to save time

10,000+ followers:

- Automation like with every other platform is key (little time with max output)
- Have a custom flier made on Canva for promotions and provide testimonials
- Testimonials for Onlyfans buyers and promo for other creators
- Zlappo is a good platform to automate

20,000+ followers:

- With Zlappo everything gets streamlined
- Create more Twitter accounts and start targeting different creators and fanbases
- The higher the follower count the more eggshells you begin to walk on so having multiple accounts is key
- Cross-promote your models on multiple accounts
- Much easier/better to have 5 accounts on 10k than 1 at 50k

YOUTUBE

Just like Twitter, YouTube is also a long term play, but even longer.

Use an aged account, post one video, optimize your profile by adding a banner, link to your creator's bio, create a bright and attractive profile and write comments on every video you watch.

If you are doing this strategically, you want to target youtube videos with primarily male attention like podcasts, car videos, gaming, etc. I personally like going to those soyboy channels and commenting something witty, like you talk shit about red pill guys and basically dick ride the losers.

The audience for those channels are all losers, so the conversions are going to have much higher percentages than other channels/videos. Do 10 minimum a day.

CONTENT IDEAS:

- Day in the life
- Q&A make up questions and copy others with a twist
- Try on hauls (you can get fans to send you outfits)
- Onlyfans journey
- Personal Vlog
- Gym (and other suggestive content such as yoga, riding a horse, etc.)
- Reviews
- Pick a niche & Humanize yourself (personality is important: without it, you are just another pair of tits on the internet, you can find that on pornhub)
- Top tips for Onlyfans
- controversial video (why you won't succeed, etc)
- ASMR
- cooking in lingerie
- suggestive yoga

Repurpose TikToks

- Download without watermark
- Post as shorts
- Captions are important

Branding

- The name needs to be congruent
- Thumbnail: coloring, links, SFW photo

About section

- Correct links to all your socials
- A little description of who you are
- Don't mention OF, a slight cue in videos nothing more

Commenting

- Similar to twitter, engage with other creators and niches with bigger following.

Posting on YT can be less frequent, around once a week is fine. The point of having a YouTube is to have a long term ROI building in the background - sort of a countermelody to TikTok.

TELEGRAM

www.Combot.org/telegram/top/groups

SETUP

- Join as many groups as possible and just type in one generic message. Men will literally hit you up in the DMs thinking they're slick. They're not.
- Remember to hide your phone number for privacy purposes.
- There are hundreds of groups dedicated to onlyfans on telegram, find the ones that are meant for "shout for shouts". Be prepared to have a screenshot of your OF account and other verification pictures you'd need. Post things like "searching for shoutouts with people with similar fan counts". Remember to add their @ as well as their link when you shoutout.
- Create your own Telegram channel. This will be like your subreddit, except that you can post OF links directly to the platform. You can manage multiple from one place, and very easy to link up.
Also create an automation bot that promotes OF in DMs. You can also create a sticker pack brand. Just put like a GTA or borderlands filter on erotic pictures and just create a sticker pack.
You can even commission a hentai artist to create custom designs for you.
^ Mostly extra stuff, no need at the beginning.
- Telegram posting should be like your personal subreddit, once every few days.

DISCORD

SETUP

Discord is by far one of the MOST underutilized platforms out there. Not many people know about discord or how it works but it has been proven to be a great place to get subscribers.

Discord is primarily a platform for gamers to communicate, so as you can imagine lots of gamers on a platform = lots of money for onlyfans creators as the stereotype is true (gamers don't get laid).

Finding servers is a little bit more difficult than reddit. Start by using sites like Disboard, as time passes other servers will be promoted in the servers that you're already in, and you can expand from there. You can also DM members of servers you're currently in and ask if they know of any similar ones.

- Make sure to set your pfp as a cute picture of yourself.
- Use www.disboard.org/search to find servers.
- Agree to rules, verify yourself, set your role & make an intro post.
- Intro post e.g. >

"Hey, my name is NAME :) I've come on discord in hope of making some lifelong friends!

I love watching Netflix, fifty shades of gray is my fav! I also have a cat who is my best friends and loves cuddles just as much as I do hehe x

I currently work as an Onlyfans model and it's been going well so far! Feel free to HMU anytime to talk more. Xx"

Most discord servers have a dedicated channel for promotion, if not, make sure to abide by rules. Make sure to post a couple of cute pictures of yourself along with a long in-depth promotion message that tells them a little bit about yourself as well as why they should join your Onlyfans.

Post example:

"Hey guys!

I'm so happy that I found this server as I can't wait to share my pics to all of you :)

I'm an Onlyfans creator and I plan on reaching the top 0.1% as I'm sure you will see what I mean when you join my onlyfans

My content is some of the filthiest and cutest stuff you will find!

If you join now I'll send over a special video for a few lucky people. I was debating sending this video out as it is so naughty.

I can't wait to speak to you all more and get to know you better x

Speak soon xx"

"Boys DM me ❤️"

Discord Niches to join:

- Dating
- Gaming (Join all Gaming communities and test it out)
- Friends
- Chat
- Minecraft
- NSFW

DATING APPS

SETUP

To warm up your Tinder account, act like a normal girl who's on the app to find love.

- Swipe a little, turn it off for the day.
- Next day, there will be a notification on your phone that says there's a sale for a premium membership.
- Click on the notification and buy premium.

(Clicking into the app via a notification makes the app think you're an actual human and not a bot)

Buy suicide accounts/burner phones with different sim cards, or you can just get multiple phones with tinder gold.

20 phones is the best setup. For Tinder, 100 swipes a day, Okcupid 50, Bumble and Hinge 20 and Match.com 20.

For the bio, make it simple but don't mention Onlyfans. Make sure to plug your instagram handle. Most dating apps don't allow you to type the word "instagram" into the bio, so just change the letter "i" to a lowercase 'l' or something like that, then put your username.

STRATEGY

Get the men off the platforms and onto Instagram. Say something like “I’m so busy, let’s chat on Insta”, or “my < NAME OF DATING APP> keeps glitching me out, can we chat on Insta?”

<The author of this is not extremely knowledgeable regarding DA strategies, so contact a trusted manager or model to inquire about this.>

PERSONAL MODEL SITE/FUNNEL

LINKTREE:

- You can start out with something like linktree or any other free link software, but the downside is that they can take down your OF links whenever they feel like it. Simplest option, free, but limited.

PERSONAL DOMAIN:

- Purchase your own domain and name it in congruence to your model nickname. This way you can measure traffic down to the bone and also have no fear about your link getting taken down.

SETUP:

- Keep it simple, don't add too many sections because it just makes the fan confused.
- OF link
- Backup Fansly Link.
- Telegram Link.
- These will be displayed as large bars in the middle of your screen. Now this is why I like the liberty to create my own web designs. On your own domain, you can create a few small social media icons and place them on a corner of the screen, these will represent your other socials like IG, Tiktok, Twitter, etc. This way you can keep the main focus without hindering your fans' ability to find your other socials. It's still okay if you don't do this, because the congruence in your model names on different platforms should make it easy to find them anywhere using each platform's native search tools.

BUILDING YOUR TEAM (HIRING)

It's finally time to assemble your special forces team. The perfect structure is 1 genius for each platform along with respective VA teams, but those guys are EXTREMELY hard to find & formulate a deal with especially if you are a beginner.

Even if you're just a Model, if you want to achieve BIG success EQUIVALENT to that of models signed to powerful Agencies/Managers, you MUST hire a team to outsource work as it is simply impossible to manage all the tasks yourself.

CHATTERS:

- Your ideal chatter is a stereotypical gay man in his 20s, as OBH says. You can just go on Grindr and literally just say you're hiring chatters for Onlyfans. If anyone knows how to drain cash out of guys, it's gay men.
- You can hire chatters on platforms like freelance.com, upwork.com, onlinejobs.ph, onlyfans millions or you can run IG ads that target 2nd work countries that say you're hiring. If you don't want to spend ad cost, you can post a story advertising it.
- Or you can join communities of OF chatters. Ethan Bayliss has one, just find a video of his and it should be in the description.
- They should be paid a commission as well as a base fee. I've already explained this in the first few chapters. As an alternative, you can do it the OBH way and pay your chatters 30%. Watch his video to understand why.

GENERAL/ACCOUNT MANAGERS:

- These guys are a little bit harder to find because their job scope isn't really defined as it can vary from agency to agency.
- One way is to hire people that are close to you. Your friends, acquaintances, etc.
- Or you can go by the same places that you find chatters, and just target managers instead.

Use this copy to screen account managers on sites like freelancer or upwork:

"I run an onlyfans agency that handles entire accounts related to an onlyfans client account, whether it be twitter, reddit, instagram. You name it.

I also do the...

- Messaging
- Posts
- Marketing

I need someone who can help me automate the entire process because I want to be able to handle 50 accounts but at the moment can only manage 2 at best despite having multiple people wanting to work with me. Include "punani" in your proposal so I know you've read it properly.

(skills required: twitter, marketing, instagram, tiktok, channel account management, account management, customer experience)"

(You're a model not an Agency, so change this script accordingly.)

SCALING

CHATTING TEAM:

You need to have a 24/7 team, so hire from around the world.

They should be educated on upsell strategies, PPV strategies, and keep up with your script building. This means that e.g. your post on OF that day was “I just bought this nurse cosplay”, your chatters should be able to design a PPV upsell ladder script on the spot and run that to your fans.

Ideally, you should experience chatting yourself first so that you can lay down your info to your in-house chatters. If not you can just hire experienced ones or teach them the textbook knowledge.

Make sure that they give daily reports, and keep them managed on an RDP or something similar like Hubstaff to protect yourself from chatter scams. The management of these chatters should also be outsourced later on.

CONTENT TEAM:

These are the guys in charge of content planning, strategy creation, scheduling and keeping up with viral content. This can be the same guy as the person managing the posting and marketing of the account. Ideally you should have an expert working with you for each marketing platform.

MARKETING TEAM:

They are in charge of your account growth, sustainability etc. For example they will manage IGs, TikToks, Discords, Mother slave accounts and the sort. Colloquially known as VAs and account managers.

These guys can be found in Telegram groups as well as hired on platforms like freelancer and upwork.

Conclusion

There you go, now you know what it takes to succeed on Onlyfans.

Although - to be perfectly honest - the goal of me crafting this is to show my models PRECISELY why my job is crucial... How COMPLICATED this game truly is. As a matter of fact, I didn't even cover a whole bunch of strategies including: Mother Slave method, Tube Method, Snapchat, etc.

BUT...

If you're a Model and you can GENUINELY pull off everything written in this book;

Scaling

Hiring

Management

Etc.

Then props to you, and keep winning.

Even if you don't decide to partner with an Agency or create your own team, the marketing tips here should've helped you tremendously
